Income estimate 2021

The income estimate is the responsibility of the applicants or payment recipients.

It is appropriate, and obligatory, for applicants and payment recipients to take part in the processing of their cases, this includes attending interviews and providing TR with the information needed to make a decision regarding their benefit entitlements and the amount and payment of benefits. Furthermore, it is obligatory to report changes in income or other circumstances that could affect the applicants right to additional support and its payments.

Tryggingastofnun shall regularly verify whether benefits, payments and the information on which its decisions are based are correct. For the purpose of monitoring, TR may call for such information and may defer the decision and the payment of benefit, until the situation is rectified, in accordance with the Act on social additional support for the elderly no. 74/2020.
